

Phrases and Idioms Challenge: The challenge is to represent a phrase or idiom in a small quilt using any technique. The phrase or idiom can be from the enclosed list or from another source.

Size: Maximum perimeter 50 inches

When: June 9, 2008 – The year end Pot Luck. The quilt is to be delivered to Sandy Allen or Barb Dawson at either the May 26th meeting or to one of their houses by June 2nd.

Prizes: Viewers' choice prizes for the quilts: $50.00 for first, $25.00 for second.
Prize for the individual who identifies the most phrases or idioms - $25.00

Phrases and Idioms

It takes two to tango	Six of one and a half dozen of the other
Neither here nor there	Fire in his belly
The ball is in your court	Mincing words
Biting the hand that feeds you	Talking out of both sides of his/her face
Show your hand	Over the moon
Once in a blue moon	Not written in stone
Walk softly and carry a big stick.	Up one's sleeve
Wolfing down (food)	When the cat's away, the mice will play.
Wearing out your welcome	Switching horses in midstream
Shake a leg	Raining on someone's parade
Putting your money where your mouth is	Pinching pennies
Pulling the wool over someone's eyes	Paying the piper
Pulling the rug out from under	Playing with fire
Painting the town red	Missing the boat
Kicking the bucket	Keeping it under your hat
Having a hole in one's head	Going around in circles
Getting the ball rolling	Getting off someone's back
Getting your nose out of joint	Driving someone up the wall
Crying over spilled milk	Crying in one's soup
Burning the candle at both ends	Breaking the bank
Knee deep in something	In the hole
The show's not over until the fat lady sings	The pot calling the kettle black
Out of the frying pan, into the fire	Not lose any sleep over
Navel-gazing	Money talks
It's not rocket science	Going to the dogs
Dressed to kill	Don't look a gift horse in the mouth
Cat got your tongue	A frog in your throat
Can't see the forest for the trees	Can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear
Between a rock and a hard place	Train of thought
A slippery slope	A picture is worth a thousand words
A half-baked idea	A flash in the pan
A dog's breakfast	A ballpark figure
Talking through your hat	Like a cat on a hot tin roof